Education in Krakow – detailed information

2021-12-30

Regardless of where the child comes from and whether he/she can speak Polish or not, he/she has the right to education and is subject to compulsory education (until the end of primary school) and schooling duty (until the age of 18). The basic legal act guaranteeing all children free access to education in Poland is the Constitution of the Republic of Poland and the Convention on the Rights of the Child.
