

Webinars for English language teachers on ZOOM

WILLOW BARNOSKY, English Language Fellow

1. September 21, 16:00-17:30 Webinar for primary school teachers

TOPIC: Strategies for Teaching in the Time of COVID

In this webinar, the speaker will present (and participants will share) practical ideas and activities for engaging and motivating students in socially-distanced classrooms.

2. September 22, 16:00 -17:30 Webinar for secondary school teachers

TOPIC: Strategies for Teaching in the Time of COVID

In this webinar, the speaker will present (and participants will share) practical ideas and activities for engaging and motivating students in socially-distanced classrooms.

3. September 25, 16:00-17:30 Webinar for all interested teachers

TOPIC: Encouraging Tolerance: Creating an Inclusive Classroom

The speaker will share her experiences working with diverse populations and discuss ideas and activities for creating an inclusive classroom environment, including the use of gender-inclusive language and a "Privilege Walk" questionnaire.

4. September 30. 16:00-17:30 Webinar for all interested teachers

TOPIC : Critical Pedagogy in the English Language Classroom

The speaker will discuss the connections between Critical Pedagogy, Critical Thinking, and Learner Autonomy, and share steps to prepare students to be global citizens and future leaders.

Please apply by September 11 to htyliba@gmail.com or brzostekmr@state.gov providing your email address and information which webinar you are interested in.

